Do you use Press Releases?

18. April 2009 by Mike G.

Press Releases have to be one of the best ways to drive traffic online. They have the ability to put your offer in front of targeted readers all over the entire internet. They also do good with SEO rankings in Google because Google loves fresh content and most of the PR sites already have pull or authority as some might say. Here is a list of free PR sites:

- 24-7PressRelease.com
- 1888PressRelease.com
- ClickPress.com
- EcommWire.com
- Express-Press-Release.com
- Free-Press-Release.com
- Free-Press-Release-Center.info
- I-Newswire.com

- Press-Base.com
- PressAbout.com
- Press Method.com
- PRLeap.com
- PRLog.org
- TheOpenPress.com

Use these sites and services. I am going to show you how to craft an effective press release. It is easier than you think. It is also free to do. There are paid services that you can use that will get better results but for right now I suggest taking advantage of these free services. dont forget if you want a free copy of The Expert's Guide To Article Marketing Then just click on that link and get it!

Twitter Traffic Machine Test Gone Wrong UHOH!!

11. April 2009 by Mike G.

So I set out to run a test on the Twitter Traffic phenomenon that is going on right now. What did I come up with? Well I had results that will blow your mind! Does It Work? Absolutely!! As long as you follow everything that Bill says to do. This is what I did. I set up the few accounts that you need to to get this truck rolling. These are pretty easy to do. Each take about 3-5 minutes to do and there are 3 accounts that you have to set up. There are 3 other sites that you should use because it makes your LIFE a lot easier I promise. And then about 5-10 minutes of research and your on your way. Where did I go wrong? I got my Expert Articles twitter account suspended. What? Why? well I didn't follow the rules so I have to wait a week before I can use the power of Twitter to teach my followers how to Make Money with Article Marketing. I will give you my results thus far though. I had 273 Followers in 2 hours and 36 minutes and made $11 dollars from an AdSense page that I made and sent them to. Interested to know how I did this? Twitter Traffic Machine that Mike G usedLet Us know what your results are and how well you fared and by all means make sure you follow his directions. He has tested his method and it works. I did not follow them and it worked with consequences. You give what you get and get what you give! That's the way it's always been.

I am going to run a Twitter Follower test!

10. April 2009 by Mike G.

Ok so I have been doing a fair amount of research on Twitter and I have came up with several different ways to get traffic via twitter. The easiest and most obvious is the one I am going to run very possibly tonight. I say possibly because I have to get everything in order and have aTON of errands to run as well as check the things out that I need like aminly camtasia its the only thng that I know of that can I can use to record what I am doing.DO you have a better method? Let me know via the comments section.Also give me some good ideas on markets or products to target. We are hopefully going to learn alot together. Check here or better yet I will mail you later around 5p.m. Eastern time which is 2 p.m. pacific time and let you know what time to be where, so we can start.This is going to be a from complete scratch as in I have no Idea what the keywords or anything will be used to target. Again this is going to use twitter to get targeted followers to be able to market to.That is what everyone is wanting, is it not? It is not as hard as it sounds. It takes a little bit to set up the automation but it is very effective and some of the testing is still going on from my end, but I think I am on the downside of it (i.e. go tmost of the bugs worked out f it)

Need A List Of Social Sites? It's 100% Free!!

8. April 2009 by Mike G.

This has Just a ridiculous amount of stuff in it. Yes it was wrote in mid-late 2k8 but it still has a lot of places to go in it. Check it out. It's free and all you have to do is click the link at the bottom.It will automatically download the zip file.

Social Networks

like Myspace, Squidoo, etc... there are somewhere around 110 of these amazing. It will take a bit but imagine the traffic from putting up a profile on all of those pointing to the same page. I know what would work great but would take a ton of time a separate profile for each keyword or KWP that you picked to write about for each site. I know I know it would take forever, but you could do it. It would require you to create a master list of answers to the questions that are typically asked and then copy and paste as needed. Lot of work one time for truckloads of traffic forever!

Social Bookmarking

Social bookmarking sites are a little different. They are what they sound like a place to post your bookmarks but they are still a bit weird but do work. Again there are like 100-115 of these listed and will drive traffic to your site guaranteed. It may take a while but nothing great is very easy.

Social Video-Sharing

Unless you have been really blind to trends, you should know that videos are HOT, HOT, HOT!!! The best thing since sliced bread, and twitter baby! There are in the neighborhood of 120 of these sites listed like youtube.com and metacafe.com anyways nothing like putting up a quick video and putting some tags in it with your website next to the video and bam traffic. Oh dont forget to brand it with you website at the beginning in the middle and at the end. Then there is Twitter. Hmmm not sure about it yet I am working on it as you read this. It has a great advantage it is a social thing dont know what it is called really but it doesnt matter I will learn it and try to pass it on.

Twitter traffic Post coming soon!

Also for those that want An Expert Guide To Article Marketing including how to write articles and how to use them to drive traffic to your site (hint the List of Social Sites is a good start:) you can get it for free as well with exception of your name and email address but nonetheless free. Get An Expert's Guide To Article Marketing by clicking on one of the 2 links have fun. Learn to write articles about 10-15 is pretty sufficient plant them at ezine articles wait for them to get approved. Then plant tidbits of each one at all of those sites in the Social Site Directory you might have to redo some of them to fit which keyword profile you put it under and yes it will take a while. But the Results are enormous.You give what you get and get what you give that's the way it's always

How to write an Effective Article in 20 minutes or less

2. April 2009 by Mike G.

it should not take more then 20 minutes to write an effective article. You should be able to drastically shorten the time it takes you; you're working too hard on it.

1. First of all how long are these articles? 300-500 words is fine.
2. You don't need to cover tons of ideas in an article; you're focusing on one key concept.

Let's say housebreaking a dog.

1. First paragraph -
 - emphasize with their pain - if you have a dog that isn't housebroken you're probably suffering with ruined carpets and floors and horrible smells, and it's embarrassing to invite people over to your house, etc.
2. Second paragraph -
 - Give them hope - However, you don't have to live with this forever - here are some simple steps that you can take to start housebreaking your pet right now.
3. Third & fourth paragraph -
 - offer solutions - use bullet points if you want -
4. Fifth paragraph -
 - sum it up and have a resource box which sort of continues the conversation, saying "(Your name here) is an expert on dog training and offers many more tips and solutions at (your URL here).

Much more than that is overkill. This shouldn't take you more than half an hour, including research.

Anchor Text Link

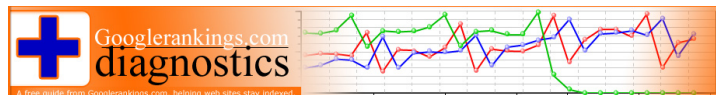

2. April 2009 by Mike G.

First of all I am fairly new to the "serious" side of Marketing Online. I understand that Article Marketing is part of "The Bum Marketing" method, and that it has the potential to be some of the best and most viable options that you need to know about. Ok, so lets go into what I was reading about today. According to some people like Bob Sommers and Josh Sommers over at recognizedexpert.com, Anchor Text Link in the Author's box or Resource box is key in getting ranked for that term. I am going to try some quick experiments with this and tell you what I am doing and what I find with my own results. I need some ideas of local things like "city+chinese food" or "city+clubs" or maybe "city+places to eat" I hope you get the idea. What I am thinking that I am going to do is right some articles and get a website of whatever I choose to get increased traffic. After all the is the point right.To get traffic to a certain url by linking in the authors box or resource box with targeted terms (the Same Terms that you want to be ranked in google)ok now for some resources after I went to did search in Google for the term Anchor Text Linking , This is the top 3 sites that gave me the best idea of what to do and to understand Anchor Text Linking and why it is so important.

1. Where I Learned about it first Recognized

- 2.

3. <http://onecoolsite.wordpress.com> It is a very basic site but takes it straight to the point. And that is all that ever needs to be done.

Don't Forget to tell everyone your thoughts on this!

RSS feeds

30. March 2009 by Mike G.

If you aren't using free landing pages, then you are leaving money on the table, I can guarantee you that. It is relatively easy to get ranked on Google for lots of keywords by using them. They will be your sales force getting your offer in front of as many people as possible. If you are using them and not using and submitting their RSS feeds then you are also leaving big money on the table! By no means is this list a master list. There are tons of sites out there to submit your RSS feeds to. This list and the website I have listed will do for now. These sites will get your sites in front of more readers. They will also update every time you update your site. It will be like sending out a ripple across the internet every time you change something. Use them. Here is a list of RSS sites that you need to be submitting to: http://www.dotsauce.com/2007/06/06/55-a-... our-feeds/

Daily Ramblings getting bought out?

16. March 2009 by Mike G.

Hell No!!

Actually it is just a makeover and a very cool one at that. What is happening over here is this, "The path as to which we are being guided is going to be changed!" I am going to start doing what this site was meant to do and that is to keep a daily blog of what is crazy. The different thoughts that create the insane world of 3G. Dont know how it's going to turn out yet as the path is going to be shaped as it goes.

Live True!!
